CTF Life Sponsors Karen Mok's First Concert at Kai Tak Stadium
Celebrates 40 Years of Legacy in Hong Kong
Creating Value Beyond Insurance

Hong Kong – CTF Life announces to be the title sponsor of Asian diva Karen Mok’s first solo concert at Kai Tak Stadium on 20 December. This marks Karen Mok’s long-awaited return to her hometown after four years, meeting fans worldwide at the new venue. The concert, themed “Homecoming”, highlights Karen’s strong ties to Hong Kong, echoing CTF Life’s 40-year legacy in the city, making the sponsorship especially meaningful. As the exclusive Founding Insurance Partner of Kai Tak Sports Park (KTSP), CTF Life has been actively supporting cultural and sports development in Hong Kong. This title sponsorship further demonstrates our strong commitment to promoting the city’s “Mega Events” and strengthening Hong Kong’s position as the “Events Capital of Asia.”

Mr. Man Kit Ip, Executive Director and Chief Executive Officer of CTF Life, said: “CTF Life has always been committed to promoting Hong Kong’s cultural and sports development. The sponsorship of the ‘Karen Mok THE BIG BIG SHOW – Hong Kong Homecoming Concert’ is a meaningful way to mark CTF Life’s 40th anniversary and represents our inaugural concert sponsorship at the Kai Tak Stadium. Through Karen’s timeless songs, we hope to connect with music lovers and welcome visitors from around the world. Her music has accompanied generations of Hong Kong people, a sentiment that aligns with CTF Life’s principle of delivering exceptional insurance services as an insurer deeply rooted in Hong Kong. Through this collaboration, we aim to enrich our customers’ lifestyle experiences and create value beyond insurance.”
